

March 23, 2011

WHO'S NEWS

Stribling & Associates announced the promotion of Pamela D'Arc to executive vice president. D'Arc has been with the firm for 19 years and had previously served as a senior vice president. A lifelong New Yorker, she has completed numerous transactions in key neighborhoods, including an important Fifth Avenue co-op, a historic West Village townhouse, an Upper West Side brownstone and numerous other exceptional properties.

In addition, D'Arc successfully managed sales at The New Yorker Condominium, an Upper East Side development.

D'Arc attended The Spence School and graduated from The Choate School in Connecticut and Sarah Lawrence College in New York.

•••