Ciao it's done at Stribling

— Stribling's Barbara Evans-Butler is teaming up with Stribling broker, Irene Grassi, an Italian native, to lead the brokerage's fledgling business representing tony Italian properties.

Italian business has swelled since Stribling nabbed a referral from the President of Rolls Royce in Rome for friends who wanted to sell their luxury homes in Tuscany.

Today, the brokerage represents 12 high-end properties ranging from a $24 million renaissance estate in Chianti to a $1.6 million 18th century Tuscan villa.
