

RUBENSTEIN PUBLIC RELATIONS, INC.

MANN REPORT

June 2010

Nancy Tela Joins Stribling & Associates As Senior VP

Nancy Tela, a real estate professional with over 25 years of real estate expertise and a list of highly notable accomplishments, has joined Stribling & Associates from Cooper Square Realty as a senior vice president. Nancy has proven herself to be a thorough professional and innovative leader with extensive knowledge of properties and market trends.

“We are thrilled to have Nancy join the Stribling team. Nancy is known and respected industry wide for her knowledge of the market, solid sales experience, as well as her integrity. Her ability to handle sales of co-ops and condos to entire building sales and commercial leases makes her a valuable asset to Stribling and our clients,” said Kenneth Scheff, executive vice president for Stribling & Associates.

Ms. Tela grew up in Westchester and Fairfield counties and raised her family in Manhattan. She has an ideal combination of a strong academic background, coupled with an in-depth knowledge of the New York real estate market.

Ms. Tela worked for 17 years with Cooper Square Realty Sales and Leasing where she successfully increased and maximized rent rolls and sales, as both an exclusive leasing agent and director of sales and leasing.