

BROKERS WEEKLY

August 10, 2011

WHO'S NEWS

Stribling & Associates announced that Brendon DeSimone has the firm as a vice president.

DeSimone, a frequent guest on HGTV and top 2% producing broker at a San Francisco real estate firm, will be working out of Stribling's Tribeca office.

Prior to joining Stribling & Associates, DeSimone worked as a realtor with Paragon Real Estate Group in San Francisco. While there, he completed millions of dollars in transactions, and advised clients in all types of real estate markets.

Additionally, he established himself as a real estate expert and has been featured on numerous HGTV shows, including Curb Appeal, Bang for Your Buck, National Open House, and My House is Worth What?

Prior to becoming a Realtor, DeSimone was one of the first employees at iPass, an enterprise mobility services company he helped grow from a small Silicon Valley start-up to a multi-million-dollar, global, publicly traded company.

Currently one of the only real estate agents serving as an editorial contributor on Zillow Blog, DeSimone is originally from Connecticut and fluent in Spanish.

He received his BA in Sociology from Franklin & Marshall College and is a member of the California Association of Realtors.

